TEAM ID: PNT2022TMID10970

The screenshot displays the OpenWeather API keys management interface. The browser address bar shows the URL `home.openweathermap.org/api_keys`. The navigation bar includes links for Guide, API, Dashboard, Marketplace, Pricing, Maps, Our Initiatives, Partners, Blog, For Business, and a user profile dropdown for 'Barat...'. The user profile dropdown menu is open, showing options: My services, My API keys, My payments, My profile, and Logout.

Below the navigation bar, there is a section for API keys. A message states: "You can generate as many API keys as needed for your subscription. We accumulate the total load from all of them." Below this message is a table of existing API keys and a form to create a new one.

Key	Name	Status	Actions

0ab59365a81e3740c4f5b288f442e783	4a197fa2-9147-486d-8	Active

Below the table, there is a form to create a new API key. It includes a text input field labeled "API key name" and a "Generate" button.

At the bottom of the page, there is a footer section with three columns: Product Collections, Subscription, and Company. The Product Collections column lists: Current and Forecast APIs, Historical Weather Data, and Weather Maps. The Subscription column lists: How to start, Pricing, and Subscribe for free. The Company column contains a paragraph about OpenWeather.
